- Siegfried inaugurated its new state-of-the-art R&D Center for Drug Substances in Evionnaz (Switzerland)
- The new facility significantly increases Siegfried's R&D capacity to drive development excellence and further growth

Siegfried (SIX: SFZN), a leading global Contract Development and Manufacturing Organization (CDMO) for the pharmaceutical industry headquartered in Zofingen (Switzerland), inaugurated its new global Research and Development (R&D) Center for Drug Substances at its site in Evionnaz, Switzerland. The 4,500m² R&D Center houses advanced chemical and analytical facilities, state-of-the-art laboratories, and cutting-edge technologies such as flow chemistry, advanced distillation and process analytical technology, as well as new office space.

Together with the R&D Center in Zofingen, it will offer chemical process R&D and analytical development services for Siegfried's global Drug Substances network. With workspaces for over 100 highly skilled specialists and 40 new jobs created, the R&D Center strengthens Siegfried's development excellence in phase II and III supporting the company's EVOLVE+ strategy.

Marcel Imwinkelried, CEO of Siegfried: "The new R&D Center in Evionnaz significantly enhances our Drug Substances network and demonstrates our unwavering commitment to providing cutting-edge research and development capabilities for our customers. It will be a key element in driving development excellence as part of our EVOLVE+ strategy and represents another pivotal step in strengthening our position among the top providers in the CDMO sector."
